

What's the difference between you and former General Electric CEO Jack Welch?

He uses a professional coach.

Dear Colleagues,

Imagine the difference coaching could make in YOUR life!

For a limited time, receive ONE MONTH of FREE COACHING when you sign up for three months. PLUS, you'll also receive a 2-hour initial discovery session FREE. That's a $500 value.

Not convinced? No problem.

I understand that you have to experience it to believe it. That's why I'm offering a FREE 40-minute, no-strings-attached, sample coaching session.

Here's what one of my clients has to say:

“Working with you, Lisa, has not only been financially rewarding, it has been a tremendous opportunity to experience real personal growth. As a result of my increased self confidence, I’m more comfortable meeting with potential referral sources and potential clients . . .the result: more clients and a higher income!” Dan Malo, Ionix New Media

As a professional life coach, I'll make sure you're exercising your "success muscles" - the ones that make the difference between landing that next client, increasing your income, or gaining confidence when speaking in public.

- Want to increase your income for Q3? Great. Let's get to work.
- Tired of sweating the small stuff? You're not alone. I'll coach you through different ways to look at the challenges you and your business face.

But you better hurry. Time is running out. You must sign up for three months before September 30, 2003 in order to receive your additional FREE month and FREE 2-hour discovery session.

Call me now at 508-881-2996 or email me at lisa@bnimass.com

Here's looking towards a positive and productive Q3!

Best Wishes,

Lisa Montoya, Professional Life Coach

PS - Call today for my complimentary 40-minute sample session and experience for yourself the benefits of coaching.
