Announcing Newly Formed Chapter of American Women in Radio & Television

Boston, January 2, 2003 --- American Women in Radio and Television (AWRT), a national nonprofit organization that advances the impact of women in the electronic media and allied fields by educating, advocating and acting as a resource to its members, has established a Boston/New England Chapter headed by Candy O'Terry of MAGIC 106.7. Following is a preliminary list of board members:

Candy O'Terry, President of the Boston/New England Chapter of American Women in Radio & Television is Assistant Program Director, Magic 106.7/WMJX. She is a three-time Gracie Allen Award winner for "Exceptional Women: Radio Portraits of Women Who Will Inspire You." O'Terry comments, "My hope is to extend our commitment to excellence in broadcasting to include mentoring programs for young women, scholarship programs, and the creation of a Boston based signature event."

Lisa Hughes, Executive Vice President for the American Women in Radio & Television/New England Chapter is WBZ/TV 4 Evening News Anchor. As Executive VP, Lisa will serve as the deputy administrator for all committees, and preside at board meetings when the President is absent.

Terri Gamble, Vice President/Development for the American Women in Radio & Television/New England Chapter is Vice President/Charles River Broadcasting. Terri's primary responsibilities will be to oversee the Chapter's efforts to raise funds and obtain sponsorships for events & programs.

Camille Bergquist, Vice President for Membership for the American Women in Radio & Television/New England Chapter is an Account Executive for MAGIC 106.7, Boston. Her responsibilities will be to oversee and supervise all membership committees, subcommittees, activities, and projects.

Meta Nisbet, Secretary for the American Women in Radio & Television/New England Chapter is the woman who was behind the creation of our new chapter and is President of Kilcreggan Enterprises.

Robyn Bradley and Susan Rosenberg, Co-Vice Presidents of Chapter Press and Promotions for the American Women in Radio & Television/New England Chapter. Both

Susan and Robyn worked as Promotion Directors at MAGIC 106.7, Boston. Robyn is a writer and runs her own business, E.T. Robbins Productions. Susan is currently doing consulting work in marketing and promotions. Their mission is to advance the impact and image of the members of our AWRT Chapter through local and national press recognition.

Stephanie Lessard, Treasurer for the American Women in Radio & Television/New England Chapter is the Accounts Payable Manager for the Greater Boston Radio Group, and has a wide variety of interests in the arts from singing to acting.

The board hopes to recruit a VP/Programming board member from its active membership within the next few months.

Those interested in becoming members should contact Camille Bergquist at 617-822-6578 or cbergquist@greaterbostonradio.com and those interested in obtaining chapter information should contact Candy O'Terry at 617-822-6324 or coterry@greaterbostonradio.com .

To support the new chapter of AWRT and support AWRT in general, Matt Mills, VP/General Manager of Greater Media's Boston radio properties including WMJX/WROR/WKLB/WTKK/WBOS is giving each person who works for him 50 dollars toward their membership.

Photographs are available on request.
