

Urology Clinic – New Location

:60

Are you looking for excellent urology care on the South Shore? Check out Greater Boston Urology in Plymouth, located at 45 Home Depot Drive. Get the Boston-quality care you deserve, but MUCH closer to home. Greater Boston Urology recently moved its Plymouth Care Center into a ten-thousand square foot space at 45 Home Depot Drive. This new space accommodates three full-time urologists, a pelvic floor physical therapist for women and men, and a urogynecologist who'll be joining the practice later this summer. The new space has been designed with patients' needs in mind—no stairs, no ramps, plenty of parking, and comfortable waiting rooms. As we emerge from the pandemic, now's the time to focus on conditions you might have put off before, like prostate issues, overactive bladder, and erectile dysfunction. Let Greater Boston Urology help. Book an appointment with GBU in its new location at 45 Home Depot Drive in Plymouth.
